

The Housing Benefit Temporary absence rules changed from 28th July 2016

The Council Tax Support Temporary absence rules for Pensioners are changing from 1st April 2017

In Housing Benefit and Council Tax Support for Pensioners, the period you can be away from home before your Housing Benefit and/or Council Tax Support is terminated has changed.

Please note the rules for the Council Tax Support (CTS) scheme are different for Working Age recipients:

Absence from Home (note exceptions below)

In Great Britain = 13 weeks

Outside Great Britain = 4 weeks (+ 4 weeks see below)

CTS working age: 13 weeks regardless

Extension to the 4 weeks restriction

HB and CTS pensioners only

The 4 weeks may be extended for a further 4 weeks if we consider it unreasonable to expect you to return within 4 weeks because your absence is in connection with the death of a partner, child or young person for whom you or your partner are responsible, you or your partner's close relative, or a close relative of a child or young person for whom you or your partner are responsible.

Working away from home

If you are absent from Great Britain as a member of the armed forces posted overseas, a mariner or an oil or gas worker on the continental shelf the time limit is 26 weeks (CTS: no provision for Working age recipients).

During your absence the 3 qualifying conditions must be fulfilled:

1. You intend to return to the property; and
2. The dwelling has not been let/sublet; and
3. The period of absence is unlikely to exceed the time limit

All 3 conditions must be satisfied. There is no discretion, so if it is clear at the outset that absence is likely to exceed the time limit then benefit is not payable.
