Preventative Partnership Fund (PPF)	2017 - 2018	Resources/Strategic Commissioning	Centre for ADHD (CAAS)	Centre for ADHD &amp; Autism Support (CAAS) supports individuals with a diagnosis of ADHD and/or autism, their families, and the community. Led and run by trained people who have first-hand experience of family members with ADHD/Autism, we understand the issues facing our clients. We provide information, training, support groups and practical help to residents of the London Boroughs of Harrow, Hillingdon, Brent and Herts. Almost half of our clients come from Harrow. Families and individuals where there is a diagnosis of ADHD and/or autism are frequently marginalised and isolated and people struggle socially, emotionally and financially. The impact on a family is immense and we aim to work holistically and systematically to support the entire family unit. Our aims are to: Support: We provide a comprehensive service that acknowledges that clients need support pre-and post-diagnosis. We believe in prevention rather than crisis management and our holistic approach encompasses the whole family. Educate: CAAS offers youth and parent training, in-house courses and specialised workshops. Education can change perceptions, leading to reduced anger, mental health issues and social isolation. Education arms people with the tools they need to become stronger individuals, better parents and better professionals. Empower: Feeling empowered can break down barriers and encourage positivity about the future. Our organisation has an exceptional reputation locally for providing quality services. We work closely with the Police, Saanpire

	Each year we support over 200 people in Harrow long term who have been impacted by sexual violence and help them to overcome the abuse they have suffered and to live independent and fulfilling lives. Many of them are suicidal or self harming as a way of coping and WISH help them overcome that and find more positive ways to move forward. We deliver over 1000 + regular counselling sessions, plus weekly support groups totalling over 3000 hours of direct professional support, plus targeted workshops and training for professionals and awareness work for 1,700 people.
