Section 18 of 21

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

Licencees and their staff have responsibility for the effective and safe management of their premises and the promotion of the four licensing objectives. Training is the key to giving licence holders, premises managers and staff the knowledge and skills to deal with and manage risks associated with licensed premises. Training will be provided to all staff and will be about both preventing and managing problems occurring at premises. Training will be regularly updated.

- Well trained staff will contribute to well-run premises or understanding of and a responsible approach to the late-night refreshment.
- Training will also be provided on premises' specific policies relevant to the operation of the business
- A record will be kept of the date and name of person trained or advised and be made available for inspection by the police or licensing authority.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Licence holder will have clear documented policies and procedures in place which identify all crime and disorder risks associated with their premises and the measures implemented to prevent, manage and respond to those risks.

- Emergency exits should be alarmed when the premises are open to the public so that staff are immediately notified of unauthorized opening or tampering.
- Any staff or private areas and cellars will be kept locked and secured whilst the premises are open to the public.
- CCTV will be installed inside and outside the premises. The cameras will cover all internal areas accessible to the public and areas immediately outside the premises. The date and time settings on the system will be correct
- The recordings will be in real time and on hard drive with the availability to copy disks for other agencies such as the police.
- Recordings will be kept for a minimum period of 31 days
- Staff will be trained in the maintenance and operation of such systems with a record kept of the date and name of person trained. Records will be made available for inspection by the police or licensing authority.

- External lighting provides an obvious means of crime deterrence. Care will be taken so that lighting does not impact on neighbours.

c) Public safety

- A full risk assessment taking into account public staff and customers safety will be carried out at the premises to identify potential hazards posed to staff or customers and setting out precautions to manage the hazards. The risk assessment will be reviewed every 12 months.

- All staff will be made aware of the risk assessment and precautionary measures therein

- A copy of the risk assessment will be kept at the premises and made available for inspection.

- First aid boxes will be available at the premises and maintained with sufficient in date stock

- A fire detection system will be in place at the premises and should be fully functional at all times. The system will be tested regularly with records kept and made available for inspection

- Increased lighting inside the premises will be considered towards the end of an evening to affect the alertness of customers before they leave the premises.

- Increased external lighting particularly in car parks under the direct control of the licence holder will provide added safety for customers as they leave the premises. Care will be taken so that lighting does not impact on neighbours.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

- Reduce the potential for excessive queue lines from customers with a well-managed policy.

- Sufficient staff will be available at the end of the evening to manage a controlled shut down of the premises and maintain good order as customers leave.

- Flyers will not be distributed outside the around the premises by the licence holder or any staff employed by the licence holder.

- External lighting for the premises will be turned off after the premises are closed to the public.

- Plant and machinery will not cause nuisance to from plant and local residents by way of noise, odours or vibration.

- Regular patrols of the area outside the premises should be undertaken by staff to clear any litter attributable to the premises.

- keep rubbish bins and glass refuse at the rear of the premises, away from public access

- place a bin inside the premises for the usage of the customers

e) The protection of children from harm

A documented policy setting out measures to licensed premises protect children from harm should be in place at the premises. Trained staff for prevention of any kinds of incidents of violence and disorder affecting children.

Section 19 of 21

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the following documents (which do not need to be certified).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A full birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK which includes the name(s) of at least one of the holder's parents or adoptive parents, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 17(3) or 18A (2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2006, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.
