Provide a general description of the premises

For example the type of premises, its general situation and layout and any other information which could be relevant to the licensing objectives. Where your application includes off-supplies of alcohol and you intend to provide a place for consumption of these off- supplies you must include a description of where the place will be and its proximity to the premises.

An Indian style restaurant which can accommodate up to 125 persons with a bar, kitchen and storage areas. A general arrangement plan marked as ground floor plan proposed is enclosed with this application.

The premises under previous trading names Red Turban were previously used more along club lines with late night and early morning opening times. There is an existing premises licence LN/000000572/2018/11 in effect for the premises. This application has been made in accordance with advice and guidance from the licensing authority namely that the existing licence has a number of member club conditions attached to it and that these should be removed as the premises does not trade as a members club. In addition there are a number of proposals to change the licensable timings and removal of specified conditions as these are no longer relevant to the operation of the licence and as a result the proposed changes could be completed under section 17 of the licensing act 2003 by way of a new application.

This application provides the following documents:

- (a) an operating schedule,
- (b) a plan of the premises to which the application relates, in the prescribed form, and
- (c) a form of consent in the prescribed form given by the individual specified in the premises licence as the proposed premises supervisor.

This application for a new premises licence seeks the following:

The Retail sale of alcohol Sundays to Thursdays, 11:00-00:00, Fridays and Saturdays 11:00 - 00:30.
Regulated entertainment for Live and Recorded Music and Late Night Refreshment Sundays to Thursdays, 23:00-00:00 and Fridays and Saturdays 23:00 - 00:30.

This application proposes a closing time 15 minutes after licensable activities have ceased.

This application also proposes certain seasonal variations for all licensable activities for New Years Eve until 02:00 New Years Day

The applicant offers specific control measures that they intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives and these are detailed in section 18 of this application.

If 5,000 or more people are expected to attend the premises at any one time, state the number expected to attend

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

CCTV
Fire equipment
Customer signage
Age verification policy

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

CCTV is to be installed and in operation at the premises during licensable timings with the facility to record for up to 31 days.
CCTV shall provide surveillance to cover those parts of the retail area open to the public.
CCTV signage shall be displayed in the premises informing customers that CCTV is in operation.
An incident book shall be maintained at the premises to record all incidents of crime and disorder.

c) Public safety

Firefighting equipment is installed and shall be maintained at the premises.
Fire exits shall be clearly marked and unobstructed during times the premises are open to the public.
An adequate and appropriate supply of first aid materials shall be available at the premises.
The customer retail area shall be sufficiently illuminated to ensure safe access and egress for customers.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Signage shall be displayed in the restaurant area requesting patrons to respect local residents by leaving the premises quietly.

e) The protection of children from harm

A proof of age card or other age identification shall be required to be produced for any person appearing to be under 18 years who is attempting to purchase alcohol.
A proof of age scheme shall be prominently displayed at the premises
A refusals register shall be maintained at the premises to record any refusal of the sale of alcohol.
The refusals register shall be made available on request by the licence holder to the licensing authority, police or trading standards on request

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the following documents (which do not need to be certified).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A full birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK which includes the name(s) of at least one of the holder's parents or adoptive parents, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 17(3) or 18A (2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2006, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
  - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
  - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
  - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
    - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
    - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
    - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
    - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.
