Proposal	Yew (T50) The tree has not been tended for many years. Many of the laterals are very long and there is excessive shading under the crown which extends to ground level. We have discussed the best management of the tree with a fully qualified (Arboricultural Association member) tree surgeon. He recommends that the crown of the tree is i) lifted by 2-3 metres above ground level; ii) reduced by 25% to prevent branch failure. We intend to keep the tree and so have no plans to replant in its vicinity.
