Reviews (Google Reviews, Tripadvisor reviews, Facebook pages)	“Done my wedding here in June 2021.. kudos to Amit and Nimesh for sorting everything out !! .. the venue is beautiful .. there are two halls for marriage.. one can be for wedding and the other can be used as a food court.. they also have one extra hall on 1st floor (ideal for sangeets) .. overall happy with the venue and the staff here. !!!” – Google Review “Attended a wedding here. Great Venue and Ample Parking. This Venue must cost a small fortune to hire. Sadly the owner decided that he will not switch on the Hot Water. As a result when you use the Toilets and go to wash your hands in the hope the water will go from Cold to Hot, this does not happen so you end up warming your almost blue fingers under the Hand Dryer. If this bloke gets married again I will not be attending for this very reason.” – Google Review

Reviews (Google Reviews, Tripadvisor reviews, Facebook pages)	“We had our wedding reception at The Manor Elstree recently. Charlie, the events manager was a delight to work with from start to finish. Due to the covid situation, our plans had to change last minute and all decisions had to be made in 6 weeks. Charlie was extremely responsive to all our queries and kept on top of all the changes we made without having to be told twice. Nothing was too much trouble and we always felt listened to. The venue and grounds are beautiful and provided plenty of opportunities for us and our guests to take pictures. The reception room was set up nicely and the food was excellent.

Reviews (Google Reviews, Tripadvisor reviews, Facebook pages))	“To get the most out of visiting the Manor, I'd say you're better off visiting for a spiritual event, like when there is the sacred chant music. That said, any day is nice. I visited this temple for the first time around 7.00am in the morning in early September 1993. There was celestial chant music and singing when I arrived. The building and hallways seemed deserted, as everyone was in the temple. I found myself running down the corridor to get into the chant. It was an extraordinary experience that I'm very grateful for. Since then I've visited several times, although we live in Ireland. Sunday is perhaps the best day to visit, although it can be a bit busy.” – Tripadvisor “Perfect setting for an Indian wedding in a great location with a beautiful house and gardens. Reviews (Google Reviews, Tripadvisor reviews, Facebook pages)	"This was my second time using Ariana Banqueting Hall (N11) for a wedding Venue. The food and service was amazing and the staff were very friendly and helpful. The venue is situated in a nice area and has convenient parking facilities. I would definitely recommend people to use this hall for weddings." – Google Review "Lovely wedding venue. Plenty of parking facilities. There's a segregated wall in between which can be withdrawn. Decent size hall. I would think it holds around 500 people . It's a single floor with kitchen space to the rear. There are a few parking spaces immediately in front of the hall for your special cars. They have a reception area at the front with toilets and a disabled toilet also. 2 smaller separate rooms are also available, normally used as prayer rooms." – Google Review

Reviews (Google Reviews, Tripadvisor reviews, Facebook pages)	“Nice Venue, friendly staff, 1000 capacity, only bad thing is frequent Power Cut middle of event. They need to sort out the sound level meter.” – Google Review “I had my wedding at this venue recently place looked big but the service is very poor. The care taker is not helpful at all. We needed tables for change over that we agreed before but when we ask for tables they just said around the side and didn't even show or help us to get it. When we ask for help they just ignored it when we spoke to management about this they didn't care at all”. – Google Review “Good facility for car parking , however no AC installed in the hall. It was necessary for wedding functions especially in the heat” – Google Review
